

2010 Trauma Recovery Certification

At the core of trauma is a sense of disempowerment and spiritual disconnection. Built upon a spiritual framework, the helping and healing methods taught bring balance and wholeness to every aspect of humanness.

Based upon the Four-Part Model of Healing[©] developed by trauma specialist Dr Jane Simington, Ph.D., the theory and experiential methods in this program advance trauma knowledge and skill and includes topics on:

- Residential schools,
- Terror, torture, and abandonment
- Domestic and sexual violence
- Suicide and homicide

(Credit can be applied towards Masters degree)

Part 1: March 14-21, 2011 Part 2: May 2-8, 2011
